Faces of the Future

2155 Napier Ave.
Macon, Ga 31204
(478) 751-6770

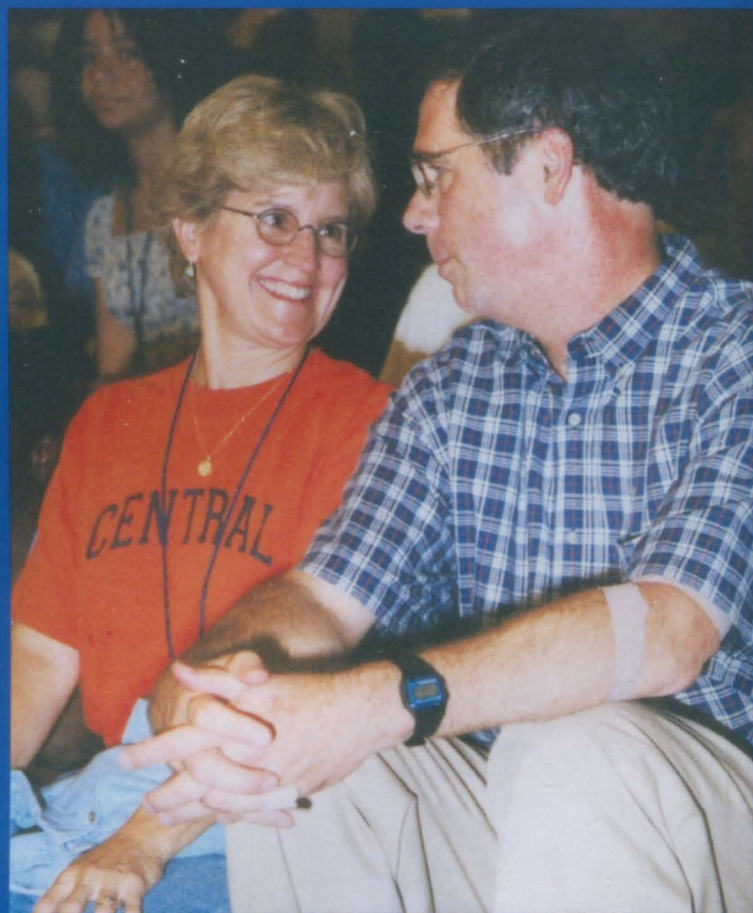

Jenny and Amy show their Central spirit on Spirit Day by sporting their orange and blue.

These crazy Chargers are enjoying a lunch in the Central Cafe! That's some good eatin'!

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson are facing each other adoringly during the midst of excitement of our first pep rally.

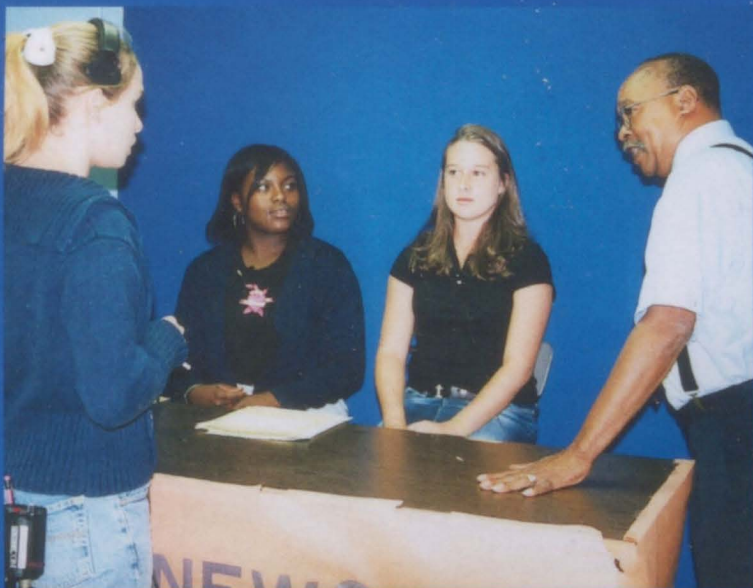

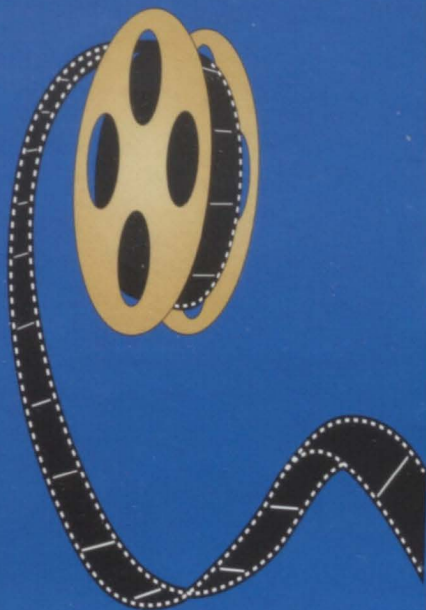

school, there are many faces seen each day. You see them as you turn the corner on your way to your next class, across from your seat, at the lunch table, and peering from behind the mask of the football helmet. Faces are everywhere and each individual contributes their own special ingredient making Central High School the BEST.

As the doors close on another year, let us remember the faces that have been a part of our individual success. Representing the fun times, a sense of humor, hard work, dedication, school spirit, and school pride, one thing is for sure... You are not just another face in the crowd.

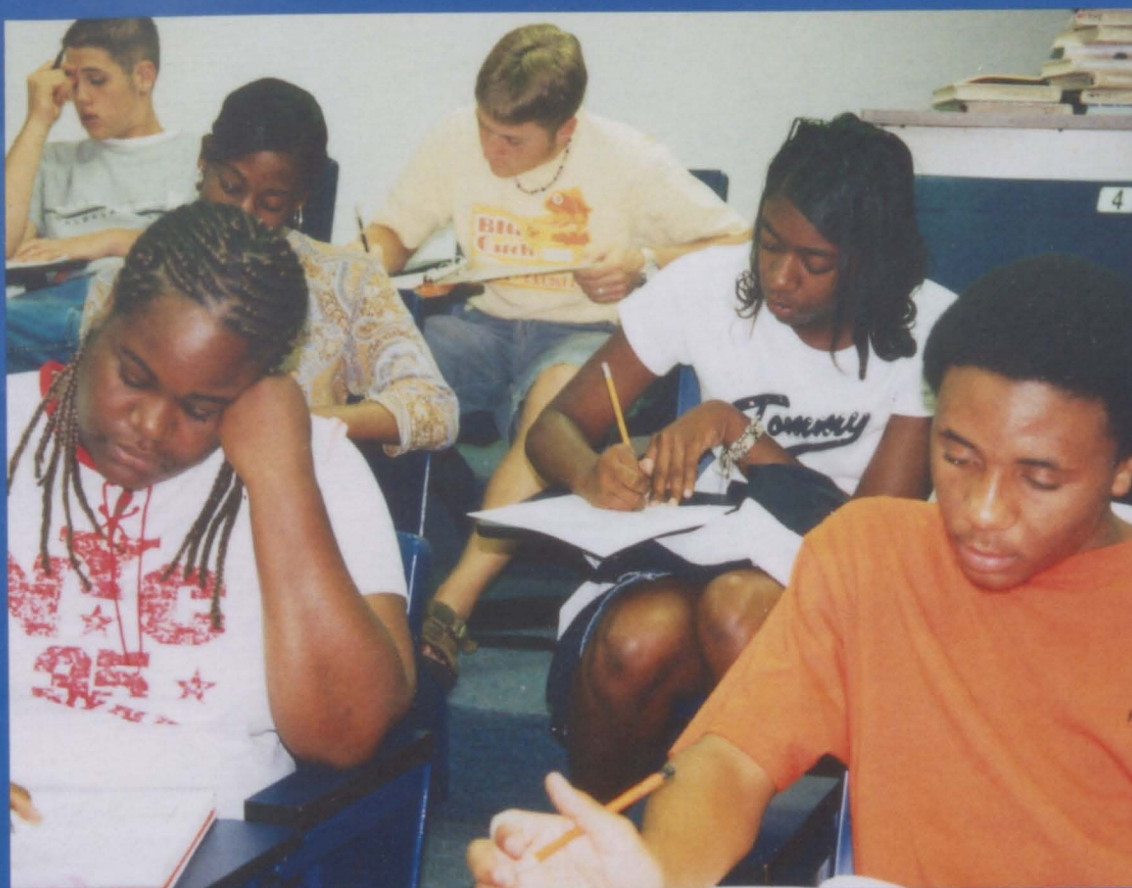

News anchors, Chantae May and Jessica Annis, of WCHS3 News discuss last minute changes before air-time.

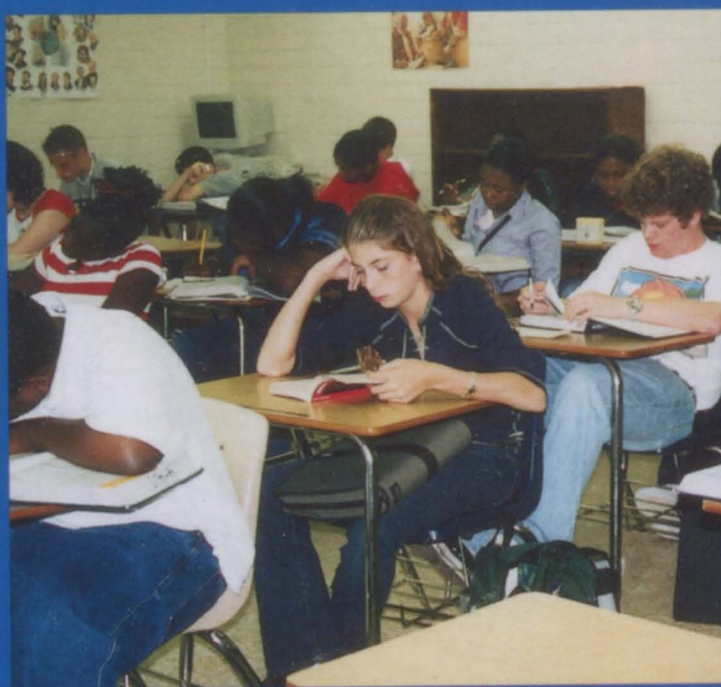

Kaitlyn Keene edits an edition of the morning news.

So much work, so little time! Students work hard on the first day of school.

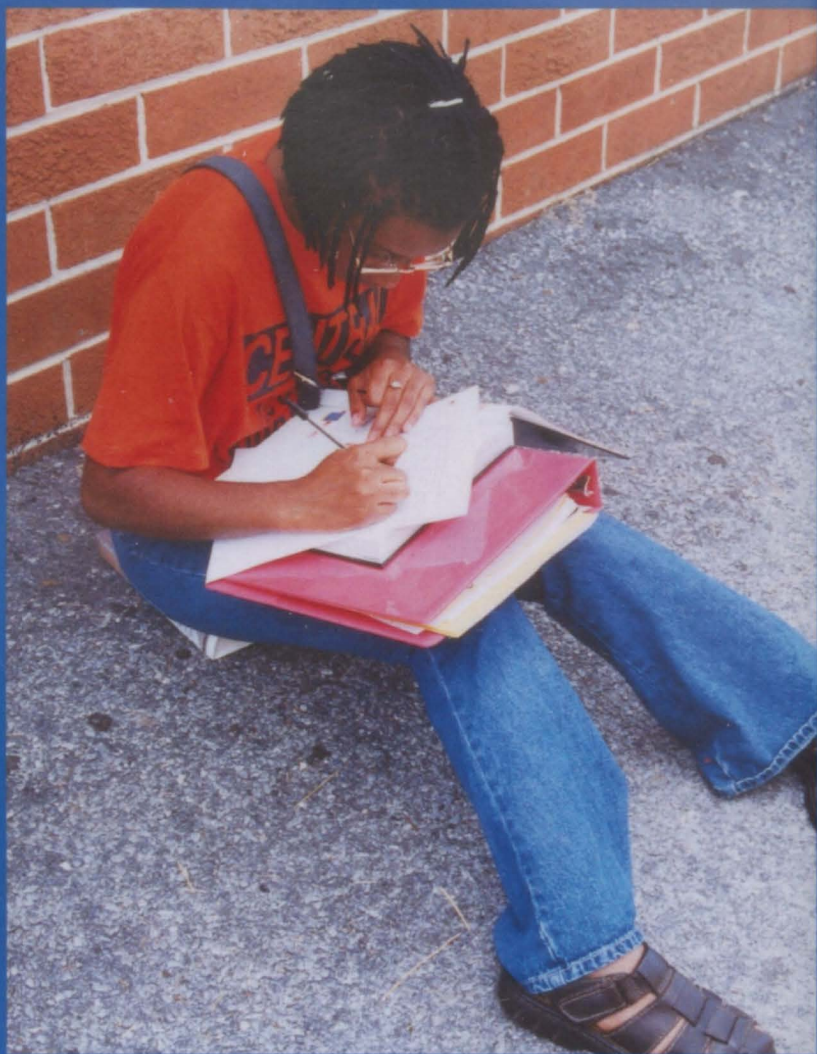

While Michelle Robinson slowly awakens from her slumber, Terrence Stinson is fired up and ready to learn. With pencil in hand and notebook open, Terrance demonstrates the studious qualities of a true Charger student!

"What, You're not done yet?" Sloane Oldham reads a novel as her classmates finish their work.

Study, Study, Study! This Charger knows how to start off a good year-by studying for her first big test. That's the Charger spirit!

The Seniors listen intently as they decide their fate at Central High School. Already faced with many decisions, Seniors have to decide on after high school plans.

Knowledge is Power! These students work hard during the first week of school.

Support your local Key Club! President Rob Johnson is happy about this year's Key Club Membership.

The Sugarbear Band is starting off this year with a bang! Chargers perfect their routine on the field after school.

Senior, Danielle Sullivan, already feels the stress from the first day of school.

Administration

Your face of the future is based on your dedication, decision, and determination of today.

Pam Wacter

Each morning an administrator inspired us with a message to make us better citizens.

Dr. Scoggins will always be remembered by ending his message with ...
"Make it a great day or not, the choice is yours"

Ms. Griffin is famous for her last words "...until next time sensational Chargers..."

Dr. Weaver begins the day with a cheerful "Hello Central Chargers..."

Harvest Festival

Everyone watches in awe as Ben Vance lays down the beats on the drums. Rock on!

Don't these look yummy? The band sure does know how to please a crowd...

This group of students helped and assisted the kids while they drew their own jack-o'-lanterns. The kids enjoyed being able to design and create their own scary faces.

It's hot, it's hot, it's hot out here...Majorettes Brittany Lott, Heather Tucker, Tenisha Whitehead, and Jenna Hirst are some hot twirlers.

Give me a tuba any day! Ronnie Hill is happy to be playing the tuba in the last home game.

Man it's hot out here. I wish practice would hurry up, so I can quit beating these drums.

The Band isn't quite loud enough. Maybe if we steal this blue thing they will sound louder.

The Dance Line shows how loud they can scream GO, Central Chargers.

Band Directors, Andy Bell and Jermaine Morrell.

70's Day

This psychedelic Tuesday was full of afros, bell-bottomed pants, groovy vehicles, platform shoes, and much, much more...

Doesn't she look cute? Pink and blue, polka-dots and peace signs is a significant sign of the 70s.

Whooooah....look at that frooooo!! Is that 70s or what??

Holly Matthews shows off her groovy peace signs for 70's Day.

114 Spirit Week

Western Day

Central students rounded up in their finest boots and cowboy hats on Wednesday...YEEHAW!

Ryan Potts is holding Mrs. Crumbliss for randome on the Wild Western Day.

Gina Intorcchia and Kathy Robinson get in the Western spirit by sporting their cute cowgirl hats and red bandanas.

We rounded up Ms. Hall and Ms. Clarke for a quick snapshot of them in their Wild Western Wear.

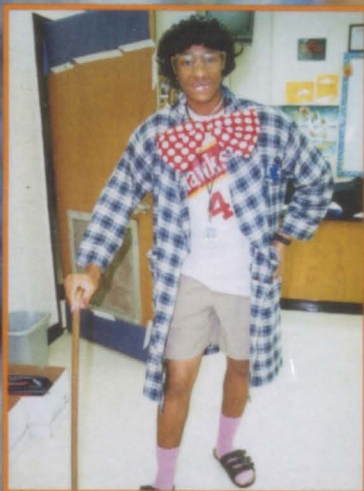

These four cowgirls take a moment to smile for the camera in their wild west outfits.

Tacky Day

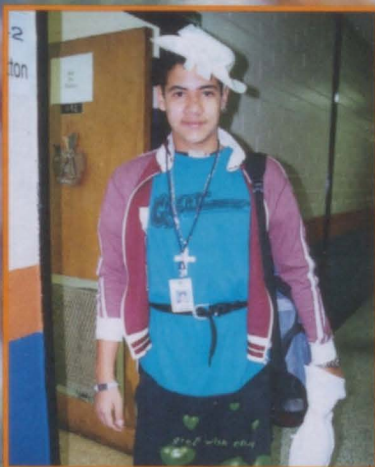

Imagine your worst hair day ever, most frightening outfit, along with whatever other wacky additions...this day was full of them!

This group of students are looking extremely wacky on Tacky Day!

Britney Bishop thinks she is the queen of Burger King for the day!

Keith Hutchings...looking like an old man!

What's up ladies?! Those nails look soooo good...you be looking sweetest today!!

These students are dressing for success.

Very coordinated....don't ya think?

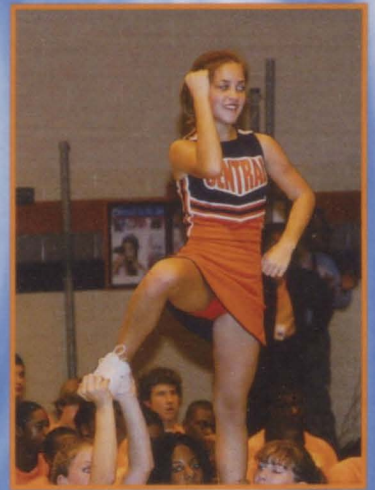

Spirit Day

Last, but definitely not least, Friday was filled with faces of orange and blue screaming "Charger Pride!"

Junior, Chantae May is all decked out in her orange and blue for Spirit Day.

Central's most spirited group of guys waits in anticipation for their big debut at the Homecoming Pep Rally...you'll "bare"-ly believe the action about to occur. (Tie Duan knows details).

"Most Attractive" Dukes and "Most School Spirit" Weaver watch the game in suspense as they wait for another moment to pump up the crowd. These two half-nakeds take their job seriously, just as any true Charger would do.

With Alex Bier substituting in Austin William's usual "H" position, these guys are still a tight-nit group of friends.

Tomika, we love you;
You have been the daughter we never had.
You have made us proud.
Uncle Mike and Aunty Melba

Tomika, You've overcome the challenges of graduating from high school as a star student, but now its time to move on and I wish you all the luck in the world and many blessings.
Love Chris-Chris

Even youths grow tired and weary,
and young (women) stumble and fall;
but those who hope in the Lord
will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary,
they will walk and not faint.
Isaiah 40:30-31
Love, Mommy and Aunty Jewel

Tomika, you are an independent young lady opinionated when you are right and humble when you are wrong. Since you were born you have been striving for higher steps, serious about getting ahead in life. It has been a joy being your grandmother. I can only see ahead for you success. Like an eagle spread your wings and fly.
Love Always, Grandma Clara

It is great to have friends when one is young but indeed it is still more so when you are getting old. When we are young friends are like everything else a matter of course. In the old days we know what it means to have them.

A dense collage of various photographs of Anna Margaret Zimmerman. The photos show her at different stages of her life: as a young child, a toddler, a young girl, a teenager, and a young adult. She is depicted in many different settings and outfits, including a graduation cap, a guitar, and various casual wear. The central photo is a large, clear image of her as a young woman with blonde hair, wearing a red top, smiling. Other photos are smaller and layered around this central image, some showing her with friends or family. The collage is cut out of a larger sheet of paper, with the edges of the photos visible.

Congratulation CO/03'

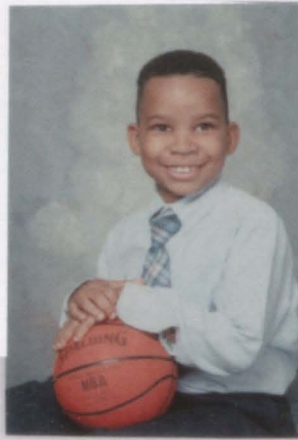

Momma and Daddy, I just want to thank you both for all you've done for me. If it wasn't for the both of you, I wouldn't have made it this far. If it wasn't for you both being there by my side and giving me those encouraging words, and that little push I needed. And daddy if were still here, I would thank you the most. That look that you give was all I need when I stepped out of line. So I thank you, from the bottom of my heart. And no matter what I will always love you.

And I will always be

Time of Your Life

Another turning point a fork stuck in the road
Time grabs you by the wrist directs you where to go
So make the best of this test and don't ask why
It's not a question but a lesson learned in time

It's something unpredictable
But in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life

So take the photographs and still frames in your mind
Hang it on a shelf in good health and good time
Tattoos of memories and dead skin on trial
For what it's worth it was worth all the while

It's something unpredictable
But in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life

-Green Day

JP was my panacea. No matter how bad I felt, or how bored I was,

The 2003 Pegasus, Faces of the Future, is the first full color yearbook for Central High School. The cover of the 33rd edition was designed by the publishing staff editors, Bobbi Hunnicutt and Mallory Mills with the Jostens Staff at the Jostens Yearbook Camp at Auburn University.

The cover is a lithograph combination with people grain on the blue, back lid with a matte laminate. Blind embossing features the school name on the spine and front lid. The pages are 80lb. Gloss white stock mostly with color backgrounds. The staff created the interior using computers with PageMaker and YearTech. The advisors, Lynn and Paula Watson, and Life Touch Photography made photographs. Some seniors and faculty contributed additional photographs.

The Publishing Staff is a diverse group of individuals who worked throughout the year to bring the student body at Central High School the best publications possible.
